

Index of Names in
"Greenfield Glimpses"

SARATOGA COUNTY, NEW YORK

Greenfield Glimpses was prepared by Clayton H. Brown for the Greenfield Town Board, in connection with the Bicentennial Celebration of the Town, in 1976. As Mr. Brown stated in his preface, it was intended to "more fully recognize the herculean and courageous efforts of our forefathers who conquered the wilderness frontiers and through war and peace developed our contemporary civilization".

Like many of the regional publications fostered by Bicentennial celebrations across the country, Greenfield Glimpses is a collection of the names and deeds of early inhabitants; the evolution of the settlement, its growth and business development; and social and historical events derived from a variety of histories, scrapbooks, newspapers and family, church, lodge, town and school records, with no particular chronological sequence. Heritage Hunters is grateful to member Mary Woodman who prepared this Index so that the information in Greenfield Glimpses might be more readily available. The Greenfield Town Board has approved this project and has granted permission to perform "lookups" for readers of the SaratogaNYGenWeb Page.

We have recently received notification of the death of our friend, fond co-member and valued contributor Mary Woodman. Her strong efforts in adding to the inventory of genealogical materials will long be gratefully remembered.

For look up of the names mentioned in this index please contact Lynn Calvin , and include the page numbers of pages on which the indexed names appear. These look-ups will report the context in which the name is found, and may include short quotes from the text of the book: such look-ups will NOT provide copies of the articles or of any other copyrighted material. Any questions or comments about this web page may also be addressed to Lynn .
