ANDREWS, W. ALMON. Papers.

Andrews (1869–1966) was superintendent of Ballston Spa Central Schools. The papers consist of correspondence 1909–54 and n.d.

AURIGEMMA, REV. SERAFINO. Papers.

Aurigemma (1904–1980) established the Church of the Assumption in Mechanicville for the Italian-speaking community. The papers include church materials, his civic activism in schools and fire department, his duplicator instructions, and notably the “Warsaw Avenue Incident” (1912) in which a Protestant was proselytizing Fr. Aurigemma’s flock.

BALDWIN, EVANGELINE. Papers.

Baldwin (b. 1901) of Rexford was a Skidmore graduate and taught in Albany. Most of the collection is correspondence, 1891–1942.

BALLSTON STILLWATER KNITTING MILL. Records.

Includes financials 1939–56, catalogues, and J.C. Penney documents.

BARRATT, AL. Papers.

Barrett (d. 1969) was a songwriter, and the collection includes lead sheets and copyright certificates along with a cryptic typewritten diary 1900–46.

BETTS, SARAH (CLARK). Journals.

Ten volumes 1856–75 etc., and an autograph book. Some of the journals were transcribed and the typescript is in a carton on shelf 9. A card index to all journals is on shelf 23.

BLISS, CLYDE. Manuscripts.

Separated from his research files (in cartons, shelf 10), this box contains original manuscripts of the Booth, Gorham, Horton, Loop, Vrooman, Windsor and Yawkler families. The Booth, Horton and Vrooman letters include typewritten transcripts.

BUMP, ALONZO. Papers.

Chiefly correspondence with his wife Mary at home in Victory Mills from the Civil War battlefields, along with his pension papers and a few other items. The envelopes have been separated from the letters but are included.

CALKINS FAMILY. Papers.

Correspondence and other papers of Herbert V. Calkins and Emma (Speir) Calkins of Ballston Center.

CALLONIUS STORE INVOICES. 2 boxes.

Invoices to the store at Middle Grove, 1924–34.

CIVIL WAR ENROLLMENT REGISTERS.

Draft books, 1862–64, arranged by company letter.

CLARK-BETTS-MEDBERY PAPERS.

A variety of documents of the three allied families in Troy and Ballston Spa.

DUNN, GEORGE. Papers. 2 boxes.

George Dunn (ca.1820–1881) of Malta was a contractor and built the present Canfield Casino in 1870. The collection pertains especially to that job. It was professionally processed in 2013.

HOWARD, FRED E. Papers.

Howard, a nurseryman of South Glens Falls, was an advocate of prohibition and the collection includes correspondence on that matter. Also included are letters of his first wife, Susie Davis, 1889–96, with a typewritten abstract of their contents.

KAYDEROSS RAILROAD. Records. 3 boxes.

An extensive archive on the railroad's operation including deeds, financial records, annual meetings and reports, correspondence, and abandonment. Of particular interest is a file on the West Milton paper mill.

LAND PAPERS.

Original deeds organized by town. Most are likely recorded in the County Clerk's Office.

MANN FAMILY AND MUNN FAMILY. Papers.

Correspondence and personal papers of the Mann family of Ballston, including letters from distant relatives; and, separately, of John Munn, a clerk for George West who left Ballston Spa in 1893 for Albuquerque.

McKENZIE, SAM. Collection.

This box contains McKenzie's research on Ballston Spa's springs arranged by spring. It also includes folders on well drillers, drilling technology and, notably, the Aldridge House. A copy of his manuscript on the springs summarizes it all.

MIDDLE GROVE ODD FELLOWS. Records.

Scattered papers of the lodge, including its Rebekah auxiliary; a photo of Rebekahs is in the miscellaneous folder.

MILTON GRANGE CLIPPINGS.

The clippings (bulk 1930–59) were accumulated by Milton, but folders contain separate clippings of Bacon Hill, Ballston, Bemis Heights, Charlton, Corinth, Galway, Gansevoort, Greenfield, Halfmoon, Malta, Malta Ridge, Mohawk Valley, Saratoga, Stillwater and Wilton granges. There is a folder on "Dances" which were still being held in 1946.

POST, DR. RALPH B. Papers. 2 boxes.

Professional and personal papers of Post, including correspondence with his first wife Frances (Gray) Post and his second wife Agnes (Hayes) Post. Army service in World War I, and civic life.

SARATOGA FARMERS MARKET. Records. 2 boxes.

Papers of the market, 1979–96, including incorporation papers, constitution and bylaws, and some Glens Falls and statewide materials. In Box 2 are hundreds of 2x2 slides and an envelope of 4x6 snapshots.

SHORT, WILLIAM. Business Forms Collection.

Short (1920–2007) of Ballston Spa accumulated business forms and other printed matter, here arranged by type of business. A folder on the collection's background includes his obituary and a catalogue of the forms.

SLOCUM, SAMUEL. Papers.

Miscellaneous documents, notably his tuition receipt from Jonesville Academy, 1865; and receipts from Saratoga Creamery of Grangerville for Mr. F. Fowler.
